Maximum percentage for the margin of preference that procuring entities are allowed to grant for goods produced in Tanzania in a tender under competitive tendering.

Twiga Bancorp complies with order to evaluate tender afresh

Twiga Bancorp Limited has complied with the order issued by the Public Procurement Appeals Authority (PPAA) recently to re-evaluate the tender regarding the supply of printed materials, TPJ has learnt.

This was revealed by the bank’s Head of Procurement Management Unit, Mr. Deus Sangu, who told TPJ recently that the evaluation was started afresh and culminated in the awarding of the said contract to Mapocho General Trading Co, who were initially disqualified at the final stage.

"The re-evaluation was held in line with tender document, PPRA’s evaluation guidelines, existing laws as had been ordered by PPAA," Mr. Sangu said adding that the process went smoothly and without anybody challenging the decision to award the contract to the winner.

He admitted that the earlier process was marred by irregularities as had been observed by Appeals Authority and noted that the bank had learnt a valuable lesson from the matter. "We won’t repeat such mistakes again,” vowed Mr Sangu.

PPAA had ordered the re-evaluation of the tender after concluding that the earlier evaluation had been marred by irregularities.

Mkongowo Trading Company Limited, the complainant, had claimed that the successful tenderer, Fast Delivery Co, neither had experience nor legal capacity to enter into a contract as provided by the tender document. However, in its ruling, the Appeals Authority
More can be done to promote local contractors –PPRA Chief

Advance payment programme for delivery of goods contracts, in which SMEs that qualify for the programme are provided with advance payment of 70 percent of the purchase price.

The PPRA Chief also highlighted several programmes that can be used to advance local firms’ access to public procurement, including a procuring entity setting aside a percentage of its contracts for award to targeted groups and requirements to use local labour either imposed on the main contractor or his sub-contractor.

Twiga Bancorp complies with order to evaluate tender fresh stated that both the complainant and the successful tenderer should have been disqualified.

According to the proceedings, whilst Twiga Bancorps’ evaluation committee conducted price analysis of the tenders by ranking them in accordance with their quoted prices, whereby Mapocho General Trading Co. was ranked the first followed by Fast Delivery, it later observed that the former quoted unrealistic prices for some items and hence recommended the award to the latter. The Bank’s tender board subsequently awarded the contract to Fast Delivery Co.
